Professional profile

Product and technology leader working across user journeys, business requirements, and engineering delivery. Project experience includes EverestX talent and client workflows and Movo-X patient applications, family health records, and booking. Brings hands-on architectural and implementation experience to product decisions, including the integrations and release work needed to make a feature usable.

Relevant experience

EverestX

Worked on application and onboarding journeys, hiring requests, interview outcomes, and client dashboards. Connected the buyer's requirements with the platform workflows used to evaluate and place talent.

Movo-X

Connected clinic operations with patient registration, consultation booking, family profiles, and health records. Work crossed native interfaces, shared models, backend services, localization, tests, and release preparation.
